Basal ganglia Speech Disorders and Deep Brain Stimulation

1st International Symposium
Institute of Neurology
Queen Square, London, UK
Gilliatt Lecture Theatre
2&3 July 2007

Topics include:

- Basal Ganglia and speech disorders.
- Measuring speech: the challenge of movement disorders.
- Deep brain stimulation: overview of the surgical procedure and post-operative management.
- Speech outcome following deep brain stimulation for Parkinson’s Disease and Dystonia.
- Imaging and basal ganglia speech disorders.
- Treatment for speech disorders following deep brain stimulation.

Faculty:
Professor Hermann Ackermann
Dr Miet de Letter
Professor Christopher Dromey
Professor Joseph Duffy
Dr Cynthia Fox
Professor Marwan Hariz
Dr Aileen K. Ho
Professor Marjan Jahanshahi
Dr Pierre Krystkowiak
Dr Bernard Lapatki
Dr Patricia Limousin-Dowsey
Professor Christy L. Ludlow
Professor Bruce Murdoch
Dr Serge Pinto
Professor Lorraine Ramig
Professor Donald A. Robin
Dr Paul Santens
Professor John Sidtis
Professor Diana Van Lancker Sidtis
Professor Takaomi Taira
Dr Steve Tisch
Dr Anna-Lena Tornqvist
Mrs Elina Tripoliti
Mr Ludvic Zinzro
Dr Jose Valls-Sole

Who should attend: Neurosurgeons, ENT surgeons, Neurologists Neurophysiologists, Neuropsychologists, Neuroscientists, Speech & Language Therapists, specialist nurses and other health professionals with a specialist interest on speech in movement disorders.

FEE: £120 for two days - £80 for one day

For paper submission and registration information contact:
Elina Tripoliti, Unit of Functional Neurosurgery, box 146, Institute of Neurology, Queen Square, London, WC1N 3BG, tel: 0044 207 8373611 ext 4492 email: e.tripoliti@ion.ucl.ac.uk